The Witchlight Carnival has returned

"Come in, walk in, sensational attractions! Take a look behind the curtain. Experience the magic of shadows, the magic of the heavenly realm and the tricks of the fairies! Follow us into a world of illusions!"

The carnival owners - a pair of elves named Mister Witch and Mister Light - will soon be opening their arena not far from the gates of Waterdeep. Ticket sales have already started and sales are growing rapidly.

"The carnival goes round and round," said Light. "The multiverse is our playground. Nothing's free and nothing's lost. Every visit has its cost."

It's been 8 years since the last time the carnival took place near here.

There are rumors that several years ago children sneaked into the carnival and made a strange change, as if they had lost some of the characteristics of themselves there. However, these allegations could never be proven. So, dear parents, hold on to your children and even if you are magically drawn to the carnival, Mr. Light's sentence makes me a little puzzled. Let us all hope that through the entertainment of the carnival we can escape a little bit of the dreary everyday life and that the breathtaking performances of the artists will take us away for a short time.

The arrival of the Witchlight Carnival is a highly anticipated event

Is Manshoon back in Waterdeep?

Some fellow citizens reported the sighting of the evil magician. He is said to be behind the walls of the Kolat Towers. However, these are wild speculations. Every Waterdeeper knows that the towers still have a force field. One can assume that the black staff will take care of the matter and that there will soon be clarity again. Should the matter prove to be true, it can be assumed that the influence of Him in the city will increase. It will then be seen whether his power is sufficient that he can take on Laerl Silverhand, Mirt and the black staff. Maybe the whole thing is just a rumor, because warm apple cider mixed with some herbs can quickly bring about visions and other things. Well we'll see what the future holds.

We want to support the carnival and are giving away 5 tickets for the first readers who contact us.

The building known as Kolat Towers started out as an old stone manor and a pair of sturdy cottages. Before 1368 DR, the wizard brothers, Alcedor and Duhlark Kolat, bought the buildings and, much to the chagrin of the local building guilds, stitched the building together using spells such as wall of stone and stone shape. The guilds of Waterdeep petitioned to have the building condemned, but were unsuccessful. A few locals applauded the brothers' thrift.
